

The Best Source of Testifying and Consulting Experts For IP Litigation

SINCE 1956

TECHNICAL ADVISORY SERVICE FOR ATTORNEYS

Finding The Right Experts For IP Cases

Today's competitive, high-stakes intellectual property litigation demands the right expert witnesses and consultants.

You need articulate specialists with credentials and experience to match the unique requirements of your case. Unlike sources that can waste your valuable time by identifying experts who are unavailable or don't return your calls, TASA expedites your search by referring top caliber experts who are accessible and ready to discuss your case.

In many cases, you will have experts' resumes on your desk within 24 hours of your request.

“TASA always comes through in the difficult IP cases. Their representatives work with you to refine the search criteria and quickly send you a list of very qualified experts.”

Timothy L. Boller, Principal
Seed Intellectual Property Law Group, PLLC, Seattle, WA

TASA's Time-Tested Advantages

Since the founding of The TASA Group in 1956, we have served hundreds of thousands of law firms and insurance companies. We continually expand our extensive network of independent experts in the arts, sciences, business, and technology and offer expertise in over 10,000 categories.

After analyzing your needs and preferences, TASA's referral advisors personally

- interview experts regarding experience, availability, and conflicts
- provide you with detailed background and fee information
- arrange your initial telephone interviews with promising candidates – and follow up soon after to ensure your satisfaction

If your expert criteria change, or you need someone other than the expert first referred, contact TASA. We will re-direct the search and offer additional experts in the original field you requested, or in different specialties.

Unrivaled Breadth, Depth, and Precision

TASA provides consulting and testifying experts in virtually any field and location that you require for a full spectrum of IP matters, such as patent, trademark, service mark, trade secret & copyright infringements; damage analyses; royalty calculations; protection methods; IP licensing; trademark dilution; and fair use assessment, to name just a few.

“When we needed an expert in a patent infringement lawsuit, we turned to TASA. We were looking for a witness qualified in two unrelated technical areas, and TASA worked with us to identify and refine our requirements. TASA performed well, promptly providing us with several excellent candidates to consider, one of whom we retained.”
